WHAT'S ON

NORTHSHORECITY

AUSTRALASIAN SUPER X SERIES

North Harbour Stadium will host some of the fastest and highest jumping off-road motorcross riders in the world, when the Australasian Supercross Championship, Super X, comes to Auckland in November.

This is the first time the hugely popular off-road motorcycle racing event has been held in Auckland and it will see North Harbour Stadium transformed into a dirt course track complete with huge jumps and obstacles.

Australia and New Zealand's best motorcross riders will be going head to head, including two times world supercross champion, Chad Reed from Australia, and New Zealand's greatest supercross rider, Ben Townley. See them battle it out on a full sized track and show off their skills in an exciting exhibition race in Round Four of the seven round series.

North Harbour Stadium on Saturday 13 November 2010. Tickets on sale now through www.ticketdirect.co.nz. For more information and series announcements please visit www.superx.com.au

RADIANCE DEVONPORT CLASSIC

This popular run and walk event will be held on Sunday 10 October and is the main fundraiser for Stanley Bay Primary School. It offers participants of all ages and abilities the opportunity to run or walk a 5km or 10km course around historic Devonport. The scenic route runs along Cheltenham Beach, the harbour waterfront and around North Head.

The event starts from Fort Takapuna, 170 Vauxhall Road, Devonport with separate start times between 9.00am and 10.00am for the 10km run, 10km walk, 5km run and 5km walk.

For more information, including training programs and to enter, visit www.devonportclassic.co.nz or Ph 412 5508.

NZ SCULPTURE ONSHORE

The Fort Takapuna Historic Reserve in Devonport will come alive with 100 sculptures from November 3-14.

NZ Sculpture OnShore will hold its biennial exhibition in this dramatic setting once again. Curator Rob Garrett is planning a walk where every work will be shown framed by sea, sky and landscapes.

New work from leading sculptors Bronwynne Cornish, Paul Dibble, Peter Lange, Christine Hellyar, Gregor Kregar, Jeff Thomson, Paora Toi Te Rangiuai and the ever-whimsical Barry Brickell is promised.

The exhibition also includes work by mid-career and younger sculptors giving a fresh appeal.

A wonderful addition to the exhibition is Children's Sculpture @ The Fort, which includes work from primary school talent.

NZ Sculpture OnShore is a fundraiser for Women's Refuge.

Entry: $15 adults; $10 seniors and $5 children under 18; family pass $40. Visit www.nzsculptureonshore.co.nz for more information.
